

Without Git Hooks

By default Git allows you to commit any files, enter any commit message and doesn't perform any checks

With Git Hooks

How Git Hooks could be used

Verify or edit commit message

Run application tests before each commit or before pushing to remote

Verify and potentially fix code syntax mistakes using linters like ESLint, Pylint

Generate notifications after successful committing

Deploy updated application to production on the server